

ATTACHEMENT #1 - EVACUEES DEMOGRAPHICS

These demographics have been assessed for any catastrophic emergency possible from any direction possible.

EVACUEES FROM THE EAST – ST LOUIS

1. Citizens from the St. Louis will be evacuating westward down Hwy 50.
2. The St. Louis metropolitan area is the 20th largest in the United States with a population of 2.8 million.
3. The bi-state metropolitan area includes seven counties in Missouri and eight in Illinois, for a total of 15 counties.
4. The St. Louis area spans both sides of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, with a footprint that extends into both Missouri and Illinois.
5. In addition to offering access to a population with an extensive range of skill sets and educational backgrounds, each county also affords St. Louis area residents excellent access to a range of cultural and recreational assets.
6. Our fellow Missouri citizens may or may not know or understand how to deal or compensate for basic needs, feeling of security and may be confused and need assistance due to the disaster.

EVACUEES FROM THE SOUTH

There are no large cities other than Rolla, population 19,841 and Ft Leonard Wood (population 16,055). Both lie on Interstate 44. The major access through Osage County is on a northward route up U.S. Hwy 63. Osage County may be affected in the western portion of the county.

EVACUEES FROM THE WEST – KANSAS

1. Citizens from the Kansas City area will be evacuating eastward down Interstate 70 and Osage County should not be affected.
2. Kansas City is the 2nd largest city in Missouri with a population of 459,772.
3. In addition to offering access to a population with an extensive range of skill sets and educational backgrounds, area residents excellent access to a range of cultural and recreational assets.
6. Our fellow Missouri citizens may or may not know or understand how to deal or compensate for basic needs, feeling of security and may be confused and need assistance due to the disaster.

EVACUEES FROM THE NORTH

1. Citizens from the Columbia area will be evacuating southward down U.S. Hwy 63. Osage County may be affected in the western portion of the county.

2. Columbia is the 5th largest city in Missouri with a population of 108,000.
3. In addition to offering access to a population with an extensive range of skill sets and educational backgrounds, area residents excellent access to a range of cultural and recreational assets.
6. Our fellow Missouri citizens may or may not know or understand how to deal or compensate for basic needs, feeling of security and may be confused and need assistance due to the disaster.